If you think that people read puzzles without being interested in them peruse the following - all answers to the one we published Tuesday: Richmonp, May 25, 1873. Editors Dispatch: Your "old puzzle" in this morning's Dispatch fails to make any disposition of the twelfth man. So I suppose he must have been left out in the cold. The first and second were left in Room No. 1; the th r1 to eleventh, inclusive, were put in Rooms Nos. 2 to 10. Now you say she came back to No. 1, where you will remember she left the twelfth gentleman along with the first." I don't remember anything of the kind. She left the second gentleman along with the first, and if she put him in'o Room No. 11 the twelfth gentleman was not put into any room at all. At least so thinks A SUBSCRIBER.

" AN OLD PUZZLE. BUT A GOOD ONE."

MANCHESTER, May 25, 1875. Editors Dispatch: I see in your issue of to-day the "old puzzle," wherein a Boston chambermaid succeeded in getting "twelve travellers into eleven bed-rooms, and yet to have given each a separate bed-room." I do not see it in that light. Say to "the intelli-Room No. 1, and man No. 3 was quartered in room No. 2, and so on 'til man No. 12 was taken from Room No. 1 to Room No. 11, leaving man No. 2 out in the cold.

MANCHESTER.

RICHMOND, May 25th. Editors Dispatch: On reading your puzzle entitled "An Old Puzzle, but a Good One," I seemed to see through it immediately. Here is my explanation: If the maid puts 2 men in the 1st room, the 3d man in the 2d, the 4th in the 8d, 5th in the 4th, 6th in 5'h, 7th in 6th, 8th in 7th, 9th in 8th. 10th in 9th, 11th in 10th, you have one room left-viz., the 11th. Now you have one room left and one traveller-viz., one of the men in the 1st room, who if put in the 11th room will be accommodated with a separate Editors Dispatch: I suspect that the " very intelligent gentleman" to whom you submitted the puzzle which was published in this morning's Dispatch had been dining out. It is plain that the fallacy lies in the statement that the twelfth gentleman was left with the first in Room No. 1, the truth being that the first and second were left in that room; and if one of them was transferred to Room No. 11, then the twelfth gentleman drops through the "hole in the sauce-

A Wonderful Leap .- [From the Cumberland News]-A few days since we printed an item descriptive of the feat of a gentleman resident in Harford county, this State, who jumped his horse into the bed of a moving cart, rode thus for some distance, and jumped his horse out again without loosing foot or seat. A gentleman in this city who read the item informs us of a horseback-leap which Mr. Sterrett Ridgeley, formerly of Howard | tions in the city for a first-class boarding house. county, this State, once made, which exceeds the one first described. Mr. Ridgeley was riding toward his home at a swift gallop, his route leading across the Patuxent at Snell's bridge. As he neared the stream he observed that high water had swept the bridge away. He was too close to turn back, and had to cross the stream or plunge into the angry flood. Putting spurs to his horse, he gallantly took the leap, and landed on the further bank. Subsequent investigation showed that the horse in its leap cleared to a country store and wished to make some purchases on credit. "We don't trust strangers here," remarked the storekeeper.

"Why not?" asked the customer. "We don't know them," was the answer. "But having been fitted up with DANCING-HALL, &c., you know me," said the customer, mentioning his name. "Oh! ah! yes," exclaimed the storekeeper, recollecting the face on hearing the name; "we don't trust our acquaintances." "Why not?" again inquired the customer. "We do know them," re-

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VERY VALUARLEAND HIGHLY-IMPROVED FARM OF ABOUT THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY ACRES, IN HENRICO COUNTY, ON THE THREE-CHOPPAD ROAD, ABOUT SIX MILES WEST OF RICHMOND.—By virtue of two deeds of trust executed to John Wickham—the first by Alexander Grant, Jr., trustre of Julia A. Green, bearing date the 21st February, 1861, and the second executed by Lugene A. Green and others, bearing date the 13th December, 1869, and both duly recorded in Henrico County Court, and by virtue of an order of Henrico County Court, entered on the 10th May, 1875, aprointing the undersigned as substituted trustee in the place of the said John Wickham (he having d-clined to accept the trusts). I shad, in execution of the sidd deeds, and for the purpose of satisfying $7,000 and ad interest in arrear due on four of the eight bonds referred to in the first-a entioned deed, the other four having been cancel ed and surrendered, as appears by the statement made in the said second oeed of trust, proceed to self at public auction, on the premises (now in the occupancy of Mrs. Juha

12 o'clock M., if fair, if not on the first fair oay thereafter, that VERY VALU-BLE ESTATE located as above, containing about 350 acres, more or less, and described in said first-mentioned deed located as above, containing about 350 acres. more or less, and described in said first-mentioned deed as follows—viz:

"All or that tract of land in the county aforesaid on the Three-Chooped road bounded on the north by the land of B. W. Green, purchased by him of G. F. Guy and wife, on the crist by the lands of Thomas 8, Dicken, south by the lands now owned by B. W. Green, Jr., R. S. Vaughan, and the trustee of Mrs. R. D. Carter, and on the west by the lands of said trustee of Mrs. R. D. Carter, the same length to lands whereon said Julia A. Green now resides, and heid in trust for her beacht, as will appear by the deeds to the said Alexander Grant, Jr., and Hamilton A. Crenshaw, recorded in the ciert's office of Henrico County Court."

This estate is justly regarded as one amongst the most vanuable in the vicinity of Richmood. The land is fertile and highly improved. The dwelling is a large and costly brick edifice, and all of the outlings (which are numerous) are in keeping with the dwelling. A survey of the estate will be made before the day of sale, and the land divided into such smaller parcels as may be deemed best to promote the interests of the partles.

The deed requires a cash sale, yet I am authorized to say that the holders of said bonds will accept cash, or one-fourth cash; balance at one, two, and three years for negotiable notes, interest haif-yearly, secured by a deed of trus.
